Mirko Varano

Vice Rector for International Affaris

On August 2024, I took on the responsibility of coordinating the Vice Rectory for International Affairs and the challenge of developing a comprehensive internationalization for TEC.

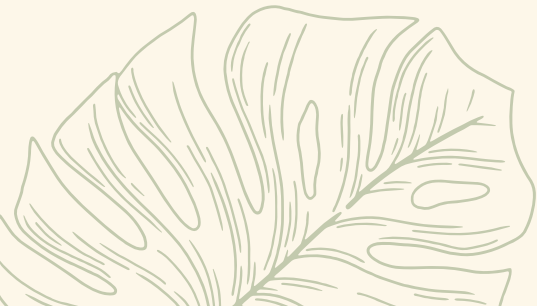

Together with my entire team, we worked to expand the offering of attractive programs and opportunities both for our own students and for those of our partner universities.

Thanks to the associated universities and international consortia, this offer in 2024 expanded in a significant way and will keep growing in the next future both in terms of quality and quantity.

In 2024, more than 12,000 students of Tecnológico de Monterrey had an international experience with academic credit in 2024 and more than 1,500 international students spent a study period with academic credits at TEC.

We had 1054 active academic agreements for mobility, distance education or academic cooperation at the level of high school, undergraduate, or graduate level, which were signed with 743 foreign institutions from 52 countries.

Every year we commit to continuing to offer students more and more attractive internationalization opportunities allowing them to get in touch with new cultures, different academic environments, and become global citizens.

Tecnológico de Monterrey obtained position #9 in the Top Graduate Schools for Entrepreneurship Rankings 2025 by The Princeton Review and Entrepreneur.

McCall MacBain Scholars

A student from Tecnológico de Monterrey obtained the McCall MacBain Scholarship to study at McGill University in Montreal, Canada. It is the second year in which a student from the institution has been chosen with this honor.

Shalom Zurisadai Carmona Gallegos is one of 10 global students selected for the class of 2024.

The McCall MacBain Scholars are Canada's largest leadership-based scholarships for master's and professional studies. They are the result of a landmark C$200 million gift (about MXN$2.4 billion) in 2019 by John and Marcy McCall MacBain, the then-largest single donation in the country's history.

Shalom recently finished a bachelor's degree in Mechatronics Engineering. She delivers free aerospace workshops and astronomy courses for children, and previously served as leader of the student astronomy society. A beneficiary of the university's "Líderes del Mañana" scholarship program, Shalom organized a fundraising initiative that evolved into a formal scholarship from students to other students. She also collaborated with one of her high school teachers to introduce girls from vulnerable backgrounds to the sciences.

New Models of Internationalization

Tecnológico de Monterrey global vision aims to provide international academic experience for all students. There are two important models of internationalization at the Vice Rectory for International Affairs

New Models of Internationalization

Global Shared Learning

The Global Shared Learning (GSL) is an innovative model of internationalization that allows both Tec de Monterrey students and students from partner universities to have a virtual international experience.

GSL includes the formats of Classroom, Week, and encompass the micro credentials provided by Universitas 21 such as: U21 Connections, U21 Sustainable Micro-internships, and U21 Global Citizens. In addition, the Virtual Exchange Programs (VEP) are also part of GSL.

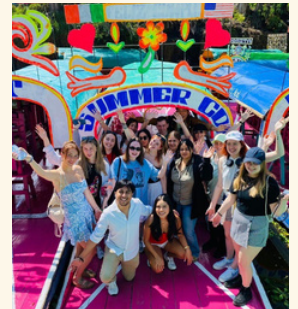

New Models of Internationalization

Itinerant Programs

The iSummerMx Programs provide an enriching academic experience for students who are enthusiastic about traveling and immersing themselves in different cultures. Each program features exclusive activities, workshops, and field trips, guaranteeing an unforgettable and insightful journey.

During the 2024 summer 4 programs were implemented with a total of 54 students coming from 21 partner universities, 15 nationalities and 9 countries.

| Program | Students |
|---|----------|
| Global Business | 19 |
| Mexican Cultural Heritage and Social Challenges | 15 |
| Beyond Borders | 12 |
| Regional Economics | 8 |
